

UNITED WAR
CAMP
WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Memphis and Shelby County
Have Contributed $349,-
829 and the Total for West
Tennessee Is $579,948.

The united war work campaign, which has been in progress since Monday morning, Nov. 18, in Memphis, Shelby and 20 other counties in West Tennessee, will close Wednesday evening with an imposing over-subscription.

Dr. E. E. George, director for West Tennessee, reported Wednesday morning that funds were still coming in freely and that more than $500,000 had been contributed to the campaign. He asked to contribute were calling at headquarters, with the request that they be allowed to have part in this great work.

The campaign closed, so far as the majority of workers are concerned, Monday evening, but there was a great deal of unfinished work and the time was extended two days to allow its completion.

Contributions in Memphis proper Tuesday reached $3,853, while those in Shelby county outside of Memphis were $8,859, making the total for the day $12,712. West Tennessee counties, exclusive of Shelby, contributed $7,544, making the total for Memphis and Shelby county is now $349,829, and that for the whole West Tennessee is $579,948, or $105,000 more than the minimum allotment.

All counties in West Tennessee, according to Dr. George, have either exceeded their quotas or will exceed them before Wednesday night. Some of them have raised far more than the amounts asked of them and have given Shelby county the warmest race in its career. Managers insist that the brilliant success of this campaign has exceeded their expectations and that they are delighted with the magnificent spirit the people of Memphis and West Tennessee have manifested from the first to the last day of the campaign.

PATRICK M'LAUGHLIN
KILLED IN ACTION

Private Patrick J. McLaughlin, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McLaughlin, 25 Capitol street, has made the supreme sacrifice on French battlefields, according to an official telegram to his parents from the war department, advising them their son was killed in action Oct. 16.

The parents later received a letter from the soldier, dated Oct. 6. It was not mailed until Oct. 22 and the parents surmise from this it was found on his body after he had fallen and mailed to them.

12-YEAR-OLD BOY
INJURED BY AUTO

Lex Collins, 12, 261 Looney avenue, was struck by an unidentified automobile late Tuesday afternoon on North seventh street and Looney avenue and seriously injured. The lad was attempting to cross the street, witnesses told police, when struck.

Police, the driver of the car sped away after the accident. The victim was carried to the General hospital suffering from injuries on his head.

The same corner has been the scene of many bad accidents. One that resulted in the death of John M. Fox, Jr., 7 years old, who was struck by an automobile and instantly killed there.

Dr. E. P. Lindsay, pastor of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church, has been accepted for overseas Y. M. C. A. work and is at present in New York completing his final examination. His pulpit was filled Sunday by a visiting minister, as will be the custom until he returns.

The members of the church refused to permit Dr. Lindsay to resign, but granted him an indefinite leave of absence. He has been with the church about six years. Because of the signing of the armistice and the return of the soldiers, it is probable Dr. Lindsay may not go to France.
